JUDGE KENNELLY

MAGISTRATE JUDGE COX

United States

Civil Complaint

① The United States has prevented correspondence through the U.S. Mail with first class postage attached between inmate Young and the Chicago Tribune Newspaper.

② The correspondence concerns facts about abuses at the U.S.P.-ADX Federal Supermax Prison ("Gitmo of the Rockies") supported by BOP records and/or Public records.

③ This was done with the sole intent of illegally suppressing verifiable facts that are a matter of Public concern and done in violation of the governing rules and regulations, 28 CFR § 540, PS 5265.11, etc.

④ The letters were addressed as illustrated in the Appendix, had a forty-one cent stamp affixed, marked as "Special Mail", and rejected without reasons, explanation, or a rejection Notice.

⑤ These acts and inactions violate: F.O.I.A. - P.A., the First and Fifth Amendments.
